

Spirit Society of Pennsylvania Events, Investigations & Meetings CONDUCT CODE

Remember—the way you conduct yourself is representative of the Spirit Society of Pennsylvania and the paranormal community as a whole.

1. Members will conduct themselves in an appropriate and responsible manner.
2. Participants will be respectful of other members, visitors and guest lecturers.
3. Attendees may not be under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs during any Spirit Society of Pennsylvania investigation, event or meeting.
4. Participants in any Spirit Society of Pennsylvania meeting or event will be respectful of public & private properties.
5. Participants in any Spirit Society of Pennsylvania meeting or event will obey all laws, regulations and ordinances.
6. Any attendee of a Spirit Society of Pennsylvania meeting or event participates voluntarily and takes responsibility of his or her own safety and welfare.
7. Official investigation participants must be 18 years old or older unless leadership authorizes otherwise.
8. Absolutely no discussing cases outside of the Spirit Society of Pennsylvania when a client wishes to remain anonymous!
9. Do not invite friends or family members to investigations unless otherwise authorized by leadership.
10. Never organize or carry out any investigation under the Spirit Society of Pennsylvania's banner unless you are authorized to do so by leadership.
11. Never charge a client a fee for an investigation! If they offer to pay for travel/gas expenses, it is appropriate to accept.
12. All fees must be paid at or before attending meetings and/or events.

No IOUs & no checks!

I agree with and will abide by the codes of conduct set forth by the Spirit Society of Pennsylvania. If I do not abide by the conduct codes, I realize there may be disciplinary actions taken by the leadership of the Spirit Society of Pennsylvania.
