

Historic Haunted Haldeman Mansion Investigation

Each investigation is limited to only 20 people, so register early!
The event will be available on two separate dates.

Saturdays: June 20th & June 27th
6:00 p.m. - Midnight

The Haldeman Mansion was built in 1812, but some outbuildings, such as the summer kitchen and smoke house were built prior, sometime in the late 1700s. The Mansion was birthplace and home to Samuel Haldeman, a well-known scientist, naturalist and partner in the family business of the nearby furnaces at Chickie's Park.

Haldeman Mansion has long had a reputation as the "local haunted house" and paranormal activity has been reported here. According to one docent of the property, the spirits are most active at dusk--but unexplained phenomena can occur at any time. Rick Fisher, President of the Paranormal Society of Pennsylvania, has captured some interesting EVP at this historic location.

Spend six hours exploring the mansion and its grounds with seasoned paranormal investigators. You will learn some history, investigation techniques and about "The Bad Room" where some SSP members have had some experiences. Will "The Bad Room" give up any secrets during the investigation? Join SSP in an exciting journey as we investigate haunted Haldeman Mansion.

Haldeman Mansion is located at 230 Locust Grove Road, Bainbridge, PA. Please use mapquest.com for door-to-door directions.

Transportation is not included. The Spirit Society of Pennsylvania (SSP) is not responsible for providing or coordinating transportation. Participating in SSP's events is strictly voluntary.
