IN MEMORY OF BARBARA BEAMS 6/8/39 - 6/2/14

Born June 8th, 1939 in Passaic, New Jersey passed away June 2nd, 2014. She was the daughter of the late Clifford and Charlotte Justesen and sister to the late Bradley Justesen.

Barb graduated from Wayne High School, Wayne New Jersey. She attended Averett College, Danville, Virginia, and graduated from Fairleigh Dickinson University, Rutherford, New Jersey. For 16 years she had her own business cleaning on construction sites, and later became customer service at Camp Hill Big Lots.

She is survived by a son Mark of Carbondale, Illinois, a son Kenneth of Mountain Lakes, NJ, a granddaughter Maggie, and a daughter Jamie Tyson and grandson Billy of Shiremanstown, Pa.

There was no viewing or services. www.pennlive.com/obits Published in Patriot-News on June 17, 2014

While we relish the exchange of stories and actual investigations of the paranormal that have come since SSP was founded in 1996, one thing in particular we have enjoyed are the numerous interesting 'characters' that have been part of the group over the years. Barb Beams certainly qualifies as one of them - she told it 'like it is', shared stories that would leave you laughing in dis-belief yet knowing all the while they were true, but most of all, was simply a good friend so many of us loved being around. Kelly will share some of her own memories during tonight's meeting, but one in particular I recall was her penchant for demanding a hug from me anytime I checked out at BigLots, where she was Royalty of the Register! One time after doing so, while heading for the door a fellow employee asked her who I was. Her reply was silence... keep 'em guessing, I suppose! Classic Barb, indeed. We can only hope that somehow she will transmit the odd humorous message from 'the other side'... if someday you awake to find your chips crushed or your bread smashed, listen closely for a laugh and a few choice words spoken with a 'Joisy' accent! We sure miss you, Barb - John & Kelly Weaver.

An unusual image, (left) that was posted on Coast To Coast AM's website on Friday, has been receiving a bit of conversation & speculation since. A law enforcement officer from Georgia shared an image of a humanoid figure with a bright aura and possible wings. The photo was captured on a wildlife camera. People are wondering what the unidentified presence could be. Is it a simple photo anomaly? Could it be a spirit or different type of entity? Or is it a hoax?

I've seen many 'fairy' images in the past, but nothing this large...and not from a trail cam. I've been looking at the outline of the anomaly and it looks somewhat like a cicada, especially the veined wing structure. I'm not sure if this area of Georgia had a cicada hatch in 7/2011 (image date). What do you think? (From Lon Stricklers 'Phantoms & Monsters')

Dannion Brinkley Headlines A Day of Inspirational Speakers - July 27 in Lancaster, PA (Kelly will be attending)

Dannion Brinkley, New York Times best-selling author of Saved By The Light, will be appearing at Lancaster Host Resort and Conference Center in Lancaster PA on July 27th headlining a day of inspirational speakers hosted by Your Inner Light. Dannion will speak from 2 to 6pm about his three life-altering, near-death experiences and the profound revelations he received. Having been to the other side he brings a unique perspective on Life and Death as we know it.

In addition to being the author of Saved By The Light, At Peace In The Light, and The Secrets Of The Light, Dannion Brinkley has been a hospice volunteer for 34 years and has spent more than 30,000 hours at the bedside of dying veterans. In 1997 he co-founded the Twilight Brigade, a California-based non-profit that raises awareness about the needs of the dying, especially veterans, as well as the benefits of standardized end-of-life care. Comprising approximately 5,000 bedside volunteers, the Twilight Brigade acts as an independent entity within hospice facilities and veteran's hospitals across the country, supporting the terminally ill and their family members through professional education, community outreach and advocacy.

Other presenters at this event include Reverend Sylvia Seward, executive director of Radiant Light Healing Center in Reading, PA, who will lead the opening ceremony at 10am and speakers Iryne Carrasquillo (medium and healer) and Martine Bloquiaux (intuitive, author and healer). Iryne connects to the other side and offers a pathway for those of us here to touch where Dannion has been, and Martine helps with the Journey on this plane, ensuring long and productive existence in which we accomplish all we came for, resulting in a smooth transition to the other side.

Tickets and details for this event are available at www.YourInnerLight.net. Cost: Dannion Brinkley only: $50. $70 for the full day. Veterans, Active Duty and hospice volunteers and staff will receive 20% off. The Lancaster Host Resort and Conference Center is located at 2300 Lincoln Highway East, Lancaster, PA.

Your Inner Light is a books, gifts, and wellness center, specializing in alternative healing products, located at 1606 Rothsville Road in Lititz, PA. Phone 717-618-1672 <http://www.yourinnerlight.net/>

Carlisle Barracks Ghosts... and a UFO - The witness in a case assigned to me by MUFON (light with anomalous movements in sky north of Carlisle seen in late June) is an Army vet now employed as a civilian on post there. He has not only seen two apparitions (a small girl and what appeared to be a soldier from the 18th century) but has also witnessed a strange UFO on the post about 15 years ago. The UFO he believes was some sort of 'scout' craft, basketball sized sphere with a bold black hourglass design on its metallic silver surface. He also had some strange experiences visiting the Little Big Horn Battlefield (where an ancestor died with Custers 7th Cavalry). - JDW

Inside the Spangler Barn A tangible sense of agony even I was able to detect here... taken during a 7/3/14 NPS battle walk on a stormy night that transitioned to sunset... this followed mortally wounded Genl Armisted's route from Cemetery Ridge/High Water Mark to the George Spangler Farm 11th Corps Hospital - the last journey many would take on July 3, 1863. Walking in the footsteps of these brave souls never fails to move me! Nearly 2000 casualties (mostly Union, but some CSA, such as Armisted) were treated here. The Elliot map shows close to 200 dead were buried nearby, most removed and reburied in the National Cemetery, but the energies of their suffering clearly remain at this beautiful - and haunting site. - JDW

A promotional poster for the 2014 Albatwitch Festival. At the top, it says "2014 ALBATWITCH" with a red apple icon. Below that is a silhouette of a Sasquatch holding an apple. The word "FESTIVAL" is written in large, red, stylized letters, flanked by two red apples. The text "ALBATWITCH, THE LEGEND COMES TO LIFE" is in red. The date and time "SEPTEMBER 27TH 9 AM TO 5 PM" and the location "200 LOCUST STREET COLUMBIA, PA" are also in red. At the bottom, it lists activities: "LECTURES * GAMES * APPLE PIE CONTEST * FOOD * LIVE ENTERTAINMENT * BAKE GOODS * FAMILY FUN". Logos for sponsors like the National Museum of Mysteries and Research Center and the Columbia Historic Preservation Society are visible.
