“ROO’s” BOOS / Kelly Weaver

Happy Halloween! As Monday remains one of the 2 days a week that Kelly has outpatient therapy, she is once again unable to make tonight’s meeting. Her therapy concludes later this month, so she truly hopes to be able to join us again in November. The cards, emails and other kind thoughts and prayers have touched her heart greatly, as has the fact that folks are still supporting SSP. (big thanks again to Craig and Melissa for their assistance). This group means so much to her, and before too long ‘Roo’ will again be actively involved. Big congratulations to dear friend Rosemary Ellen Guiley on her engagement to Joe Redmiles! Ro reports ‘We haven’t set a date or place yet, but it will be appropriate for two people deep into the paranormal!’

Sorry for the limited size of this month’s newsletter - between a crazy schedule at work, taking care of the house, Kellys messages and of course helping with her, I’ve had little spare time - thanks so much again for every ones’ kindness and understanding over a trying period for us! - JDW

RT: Anyone recognize this devilish fellow? (Hint: This scared the Hell out of me when I saw it regularly as a kid) What a great prop he would make for a home Halloween display!

Guest Speaker: Rick Fisher – Inside a Haunted House

See the mysterious hand that was captured on video and hear the ghostly voices that were recorded from a 6 month long investigation of a reported haunted house. Rick is the author of Ghosts of the River Towns and co author of Ouija Gone Wild.

Guest Speaker: Rona Hollister-Wohlfeil - “The Guest House... In The Company of Spirits”

“I grew up in the church with a mother who has deeply-rooted christian beliefs; my view of the spiritual realm was very narrow-minded. The spiritual visitations began shortly after moving into our Mount Joy home and over the last 13 years we have lived with a haunting. Moving black shadows, whispering, getting touched, things getting moved, and even a black cat has been seen along with many collected evp recordings, pictures and videos. In 2010, pastoral help was sought after and we were refused help, along with the loss of many christian “friends”. My views on the paranormal, religion, and life after death have vastly changed over the years as this path that was laid before me, continues. My on-going experiences have taken the “para” out of “normal”.
